FYI – as mentioned last night, [REDACTED]

- At this time, there are no indications of domestic mobilizations to violence (same in the U.S.A.) relating to the call for protest;
  - Three protests are known at this time: Windsor (1800 today), Hamilton (1730 today) and Montreal (1730 tomorrow)
- RCMP and CSIS regional offices are engaged with partners (including Police of Jurisdiction) to keep a pulse on the situation;
  - The threat could also manifest itself from both the IMVE and RMVE milieu
- Internationally, GAC concerned with missions in Tel Aviv, Ramaala, Amman, Baghdad, Cairo and Beirut, as well as the implications the protests could have on evacuation flights
  - Between 600 and 800 evacuations over six flights planned by Canada between today and Sunday
  - PS unclear and following up on screening of non-Canadian dependents

NS OPS will continue to monitor the situation with partners

Perfect, thanks so much Tricia. Good to know. Laurie-Anne was away yesterday and today so it's likely a case of Jean not being fully aware but he's on it now. Thx! L.

The statement is in good shape in my view - clear and direct. I'm sure this has been discussed on the ground but below are a few considerations:

- timing and confirmation of VVIP statement (I flagged for PCO Comms)
- risks of issuing statement today (low?) if protests don't go forward or H's calls to action change
- process for securing PT approvals (will leave that to folks on the ground)

Otherwise, great work, team.
